

JERRY SAN NICOLAS
Vice President of Administration

Jerry's journey spans over a decade, starting his career with Papillon in 2006 as a Las Vegas reservation agent and quickly ascending to Yield Manager in 2009. Equipped with expertise in aircraft management, load factors, and on time performance, Jerry's career continues to grow when he assumed the role of the Boulder City Base Manager in 2016. He diligently oversaw the tower, flightline, and central reservations department.

In 2019 Jerry reached new heights as the General Manager, expanding his portfolio to include Nevada ground operations and a first-class transportation department. This pivotal role further solidified his reputation as a leader and industry expert. In 2023, Jerry became the Vice President of Administration, where he continues to drive organizational excellence and help shape the future of Papillon.
